

Ausra Ramanauskaite

Ausra Ramanauskaite completed the dental education (DDS) (2006–2011) and specialization in periodontology (2011–2014) at the Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Lithuania.

In 2016, she was awarded a one-year Osteology Foundation research scholarship at the Oral Surgery Department, University of Düsseldorf, Germany. She received the PhD degree in 2018 and Dr. med.dent in 2019.

Currently, Ausra Ramanauskaite is working at the Oral Surgery and Implantology Department at Goethe University in Frankfurt, Germany.

Ausra has authored international peer-reviewed publications and is active in the research field of peri-implant pathology, bone and soft tissue regeneration.